Lao national day

Laos and Japan enjoying a path of mutual prosperity

Siyang Chomdeelam
Minister of External Relations
Laos

The Lao multiethnic people proudly celebrate the 26th anniversary of His Majesty the Emperor’s enthronement, a great historic and patriotic event that has strengthened the friendship and solidarity between the Lao people and the Japanese people. The day was marked by a number of activities, including the Laos-Japan Summit Meeting in Tokyo on October 5, attended by the Japanese Prime Minister Yukio Hatoyama in Tokyo. On this occasion, Prime Minister Hatoyama also made a visit to the Lao Embassy in Tokyo, where he expressed his grief and extended to the Lao people his sincere condolences for the Lao people’s loss in the tragic earthquake in Vientiane in September.

On the occasion of the 34th anniversary of the Lao People’s Democratic Republic’s National Day, the Lao People’s Democratic Republic has endeavored to further strengthen and develop its relations with Japan. The Lao-Japanese friendship is a model of development assistance. Since 1996, Japan’s ODA to the Lao People’s Democratic Republic has been increasing year by year. In the past 15 years, Japan’s ODA to the Lao People’s Democratic Republic has been increasing significantly, and it has reached approximately ¥10 billion. In the past 15 years, Japan’s ODA to the Lao People’s Democratic Republic has been increasing significantly, and it has reached approximately ¥10 billion.

In March, the first Joint Foreign Ministers’ Meeting between Japan and Laos was held in Tokyo. The meeting was attended by the Japanese Foreign Minister Katsuya Okada and the Lao Foreign Minister Sinlavong Khoutsarath. The two foreign ministers discussed issues such as the protection of the Mekong River and the promotion of peace and stability in the region.

In May, Prime Minister Hatoyama visited Laos to attend the 10th Mekong-Japan Summit Meeting in Vientiane. He also attended the first Joint Foreign Ministers’ Meeting with Laos. The meeting was attended by the Japanese Foreign Minister Katsuya Okada and the Lao Foreign Minister Sinlavong Khoutsarath. The two foreign ministers discussed issues such as the protection of the Mekong River and the promotion of peace and stability in the region.

In June, the third Joint Foreign Ministers’ Meeting between Japan and Laos was held in Tokyo. The meeting was attended by the Japanese Foreign Minister Katsuya Okada and the Lao Foreign Minister Sinlavong Khoutsarath. The two foreign ministers discussed issues such as the protection of the Mekong River and the promotion of peace and stability in the region.

In July, the Lao President, Bounkhone Phanthavong, visited Japan to attend the 10th Mekong-Japan Summit Meeting in Vientiane. The meeting was attended by the Japanese Prime Minister Yukio Hatoyama and the Lao President Bounkhone Phanthavong. The two leaders discussed issues such as the protection of the Mekong River and the promotion of peace and stability in the region.

In August, the Lao President, Bounkhone Phanthavong, visited Japan to attend the 10th Mekong-Japan Summit Meeting in Vientiane. The meeting was attended by the Japanese Prime Minister Yukio Hatoyama and the Lao President Bounkhone Phanthavong. The two leaders discussed issues such as the protection of the Mekong River and the promotion of peace and stability in the region.

In September, the Lao President, Bounkhone Phanthavong, visited Japan to attend the 10th Mekong-Japan Summit Meeting in Vientiane. The meeting was attended by the Japanese Prime Minister Yukio Hatoyama and the Lao President Bounkhone Phanthavong. The two leaders discussed issues such as the protection of the Mekong River and the promotion of peace and stability in the region.

In October, the Lao President, Bounkhone Phanthavong, visited Japan to attend the 10th Mekong-Japan Summit Meeting in Vientiane. The meeting was attended by the Japanese Prime Minister Yukio Hatoyama and the Lao President Bounkhone Phanthavong. The two leaders discussed issues such as the protection of the Mekong River and the promotion of peace and stability in the region.

In November, the Lao President, Bounkhone Phanthavong, visited Japan to attend the 10th Mekong-Japan Summit Meeting in Vientiane. The meeting was attended by the Japanese Prime Minister Yukio Hatoyama and the Lao President Bounkhone Phanthavong. The two leaders discussed issues such as the protection of the Mekong River and the promotion of peace and stability in the region.

In December, the Lao President, Bounkhone Phanthavong, visited Japan to attend the 10th Mekong-Japan Summit Meeting in Vientiane. The meeting was attended by the Japanese Prime Minister Yukio Hatoyama and the Lao President Bounkhone Phanthavong. The two leaders discussed issues such as the protection of the Mekong River and the promotion of peace and stability in the region.